JEFFERY WADE PERTEET
GRADE 3

A Flair For Fashion

A school-wide drawing contest was held to choose a picture for our title page. Jeffery Perteet, a third grader won. Runners up were Bradley Hamilton, Juliann Montgomery, and Jeremy Doyle. Most of our response came from the grade school. The contestants were asked to draw their entries with a western theme. We thank all the people who entered.

Floyd R. Neal

A Dedicated Man

Guess who goes to about all the school activities? Who went to Wynnewood to a track meet? Who is the man in the stands at all the basketball games? Floyd R. Neal, that's who!

Mr. Neal, a 1929 graduate of Kiowa School, born in the Kiowa area on August 17, 1909, retired as principal from Kiowa Public School in 1974. The 1983-84 yearbook staff would like to honor him by dedicating this year's annual to him.

THANK YOU, MR. NEAL, FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Sr. Personalities

Seniors Spotlight True Personalities!

Pictured upper left we find an overly friendly Devan Hall. Devan is so friendly that he decided to join the Class Clowns, Marilyn Mabray and Jeff Newberry.

Soph. Class Officers

Pictured middle right is our vice president intently listening to what is going on, while student council member, Angie Wolf seems to think if she closes her eyes it will all go away. Sorry, Angie. It doesn't work that way! Above and to the right is Angie again in a much better pose. (No, Angie didn't work on the yearbook and put these pictures in herself. It just turned out that way.) Pictured above, middle is Bradley Horn, president, daydreaming about something? Someone? Some-where????????????????????

LANCE GRAVES—REPORTER; MIKE TRAMMELL—ST. COUNCIL; KELVIN JOHNSTON—SECRETARY/TREAS.; BRAD HORN—PRESIDENT; ANGIE WOLF—ST. COUNCIL; MANDY NEWBERRY—VICE PRESIDENT.

Middle right Tina Lewis studies hard. (You know, it is not easy to be a vice president. Just ask one.) Above right Michelle Mabray, student council member, thinks about all those times she got to get out of class to decorate and do student council things. She's planning to run again next year! Above middle is Chris Caldwell. He has a very nice aunt named Anita by the way. Chris is secretary and treasurer and doesn't mind being pictured with three very foxy looking ladies!

Mrs. Reba Self, adviser. Top L. Frances McConnell looking at copy. Middle L. Susan O. twitching her nose in hopes that her deadline will be met.

Pictured bottom L. is Mrs. Self proofing reports handed in by student reporters. This year the "Cowboy" staff has published a paper every three weeks. They have tried to include as many student's names as possible, to report on every event that happened, and to present the news as impartially as possible. It has been a trying but fun year for the "Cowboy" newspaper staff.

Ssshhh! Quiet Please! Library

Top middle is Sharyn Gregory on her way to the library to do some clean-up chores. Next to her is Pamela Suter and her pet doggy. We all have enjoyed looking at the interesting and pretty bulletin board displays.

We had an exciting year. Mrs. Richardson was our sponsor; Tonya Coffee, president; Kristie Newberry, vice-president; Marilyn Mabray, secretary; Regina Batts, reporter; and Carolyn Hatridge, historian. Our year was highlighted by a trip to Oklahoma City to the State FHA Convention. Some of our activities included a Senior Fall Style Show, skin care and make-up demonstration and Sub District Rally.

Future Farmers Of America

We had many agricultural activities this year. Our officers won a gold certificate in the leadership training conference. Several ribbons were won at the fair and Pitts. Co. Junior Livestock show.

We attended the State Convention at Okla. City and entered several livestock and land judging contests. Also, several members made good gains with their supervised agricultural occupation programs.

Homecoming Queen

Wade Daniel escorted Kristie Newberry. Wade is a senior and Kristie is also a senior. Kristie's dress was bright red.

Stephen Cox escorted Regina Batts. Stephen is a junior and Regina is a senior. Regina's dress was a blue-green.

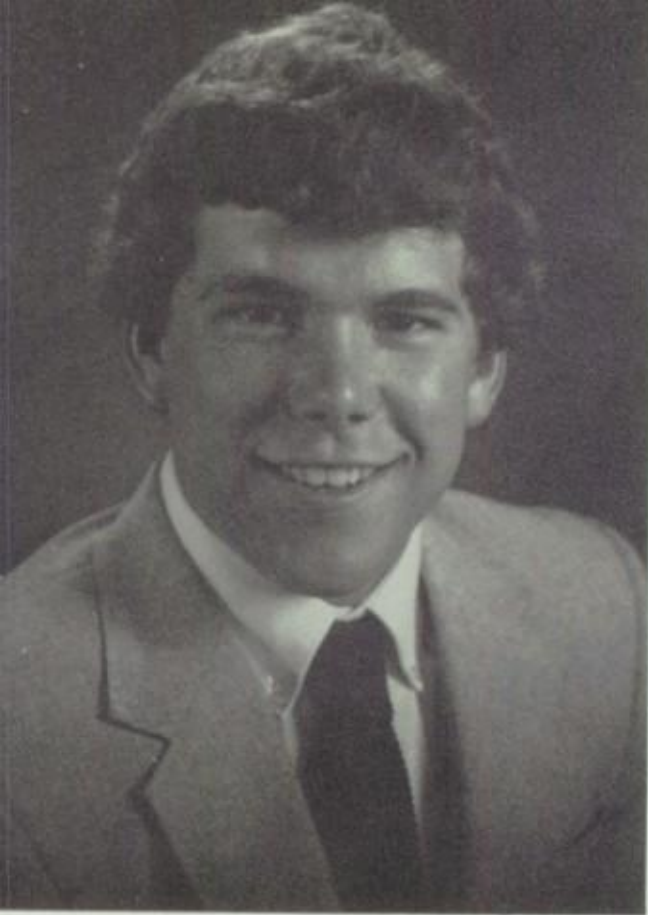

Brad Weaver escorted Tonya Coffee. Brad is a junior and Tonya is a senior. Tonya's dress was white.

Michael Stone was crown bearer and Laura Sorrells was flower girl. Both are in the first grade.

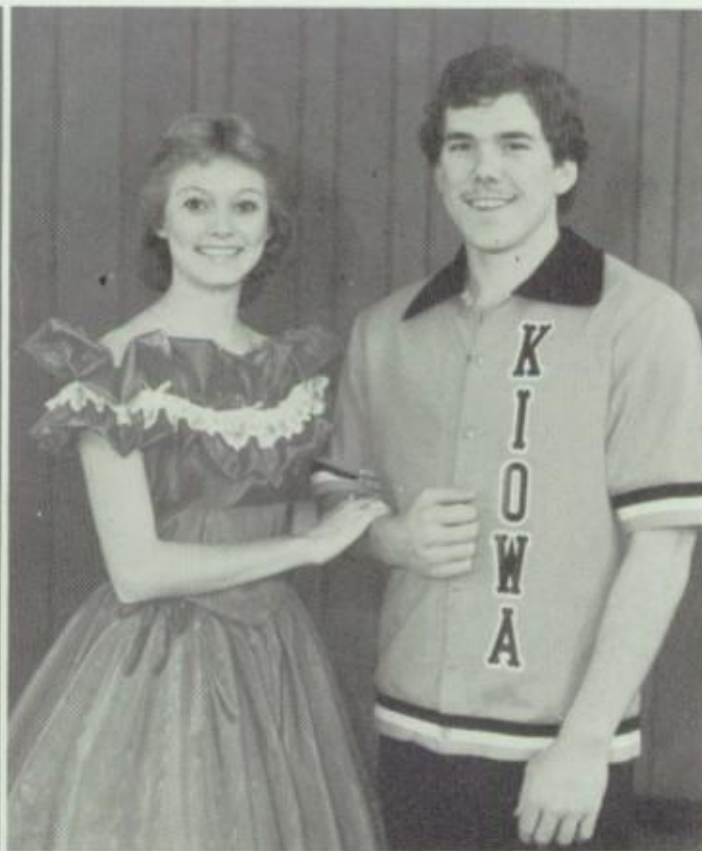

JEFF NEWBERRY was elected homecoming captain by popular vote of the boys' basketball team. Jeff's winning smile and charming manner have won Jeff many honors this senior year. Co-captains were Rex Hatridge and Wade Daniels, both seniors. Congratulations boys!

Homecoming Captain

Rex Hatridge escorted Tricia Batts. Rex is a senior and Tricia is a sophomore. Tricia's dress was lavender and white.

Jeff Newberry escorted Dena Capehart. Jeff is a senior and Dena is a junior. Dena's dress was bright red.

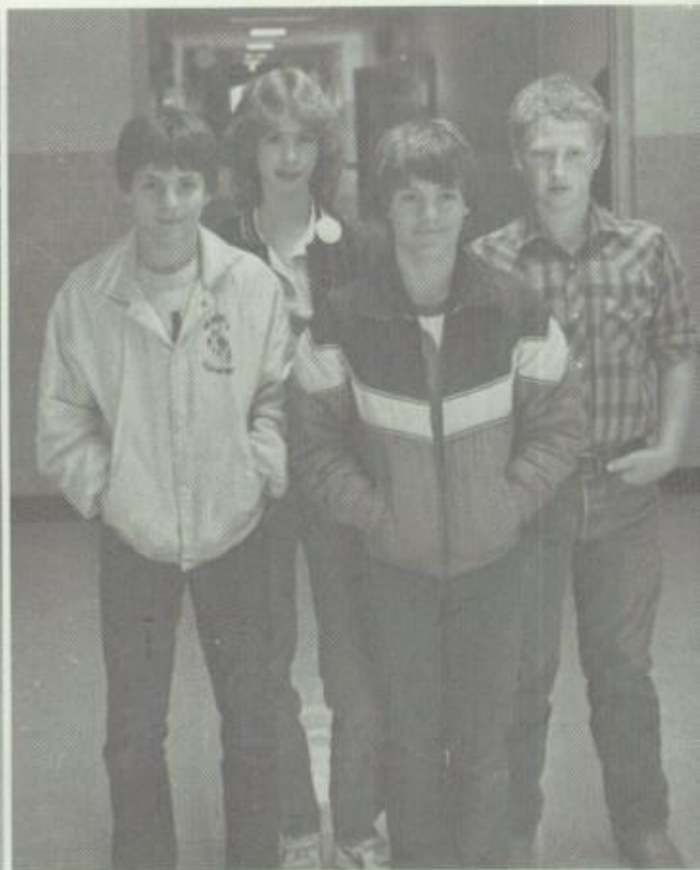

T. J. Shannon escorted Sherri Mabray. T. J. is a sophomore and Sherri is a sophomore. Sherri's dress was pink.

Honor Society

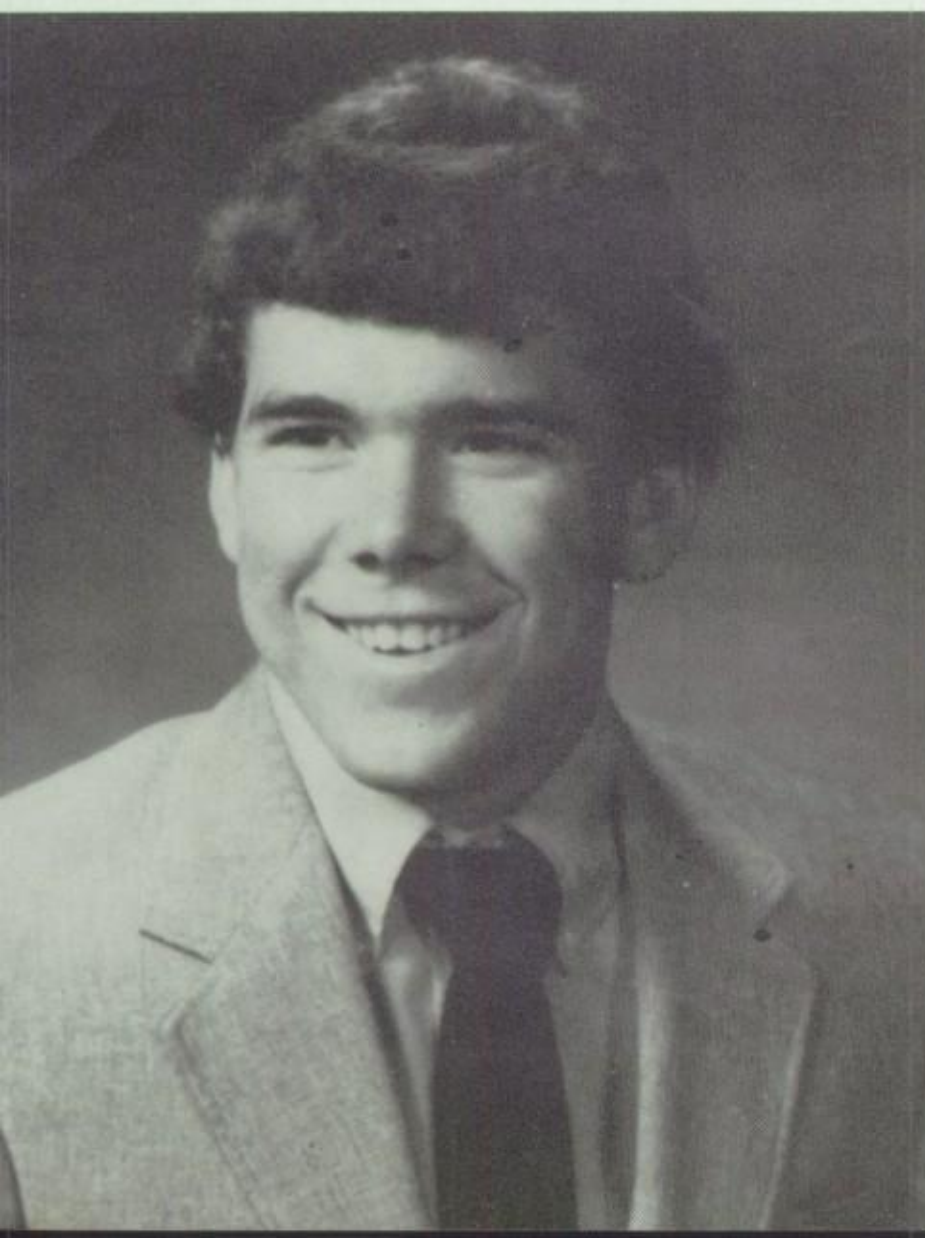

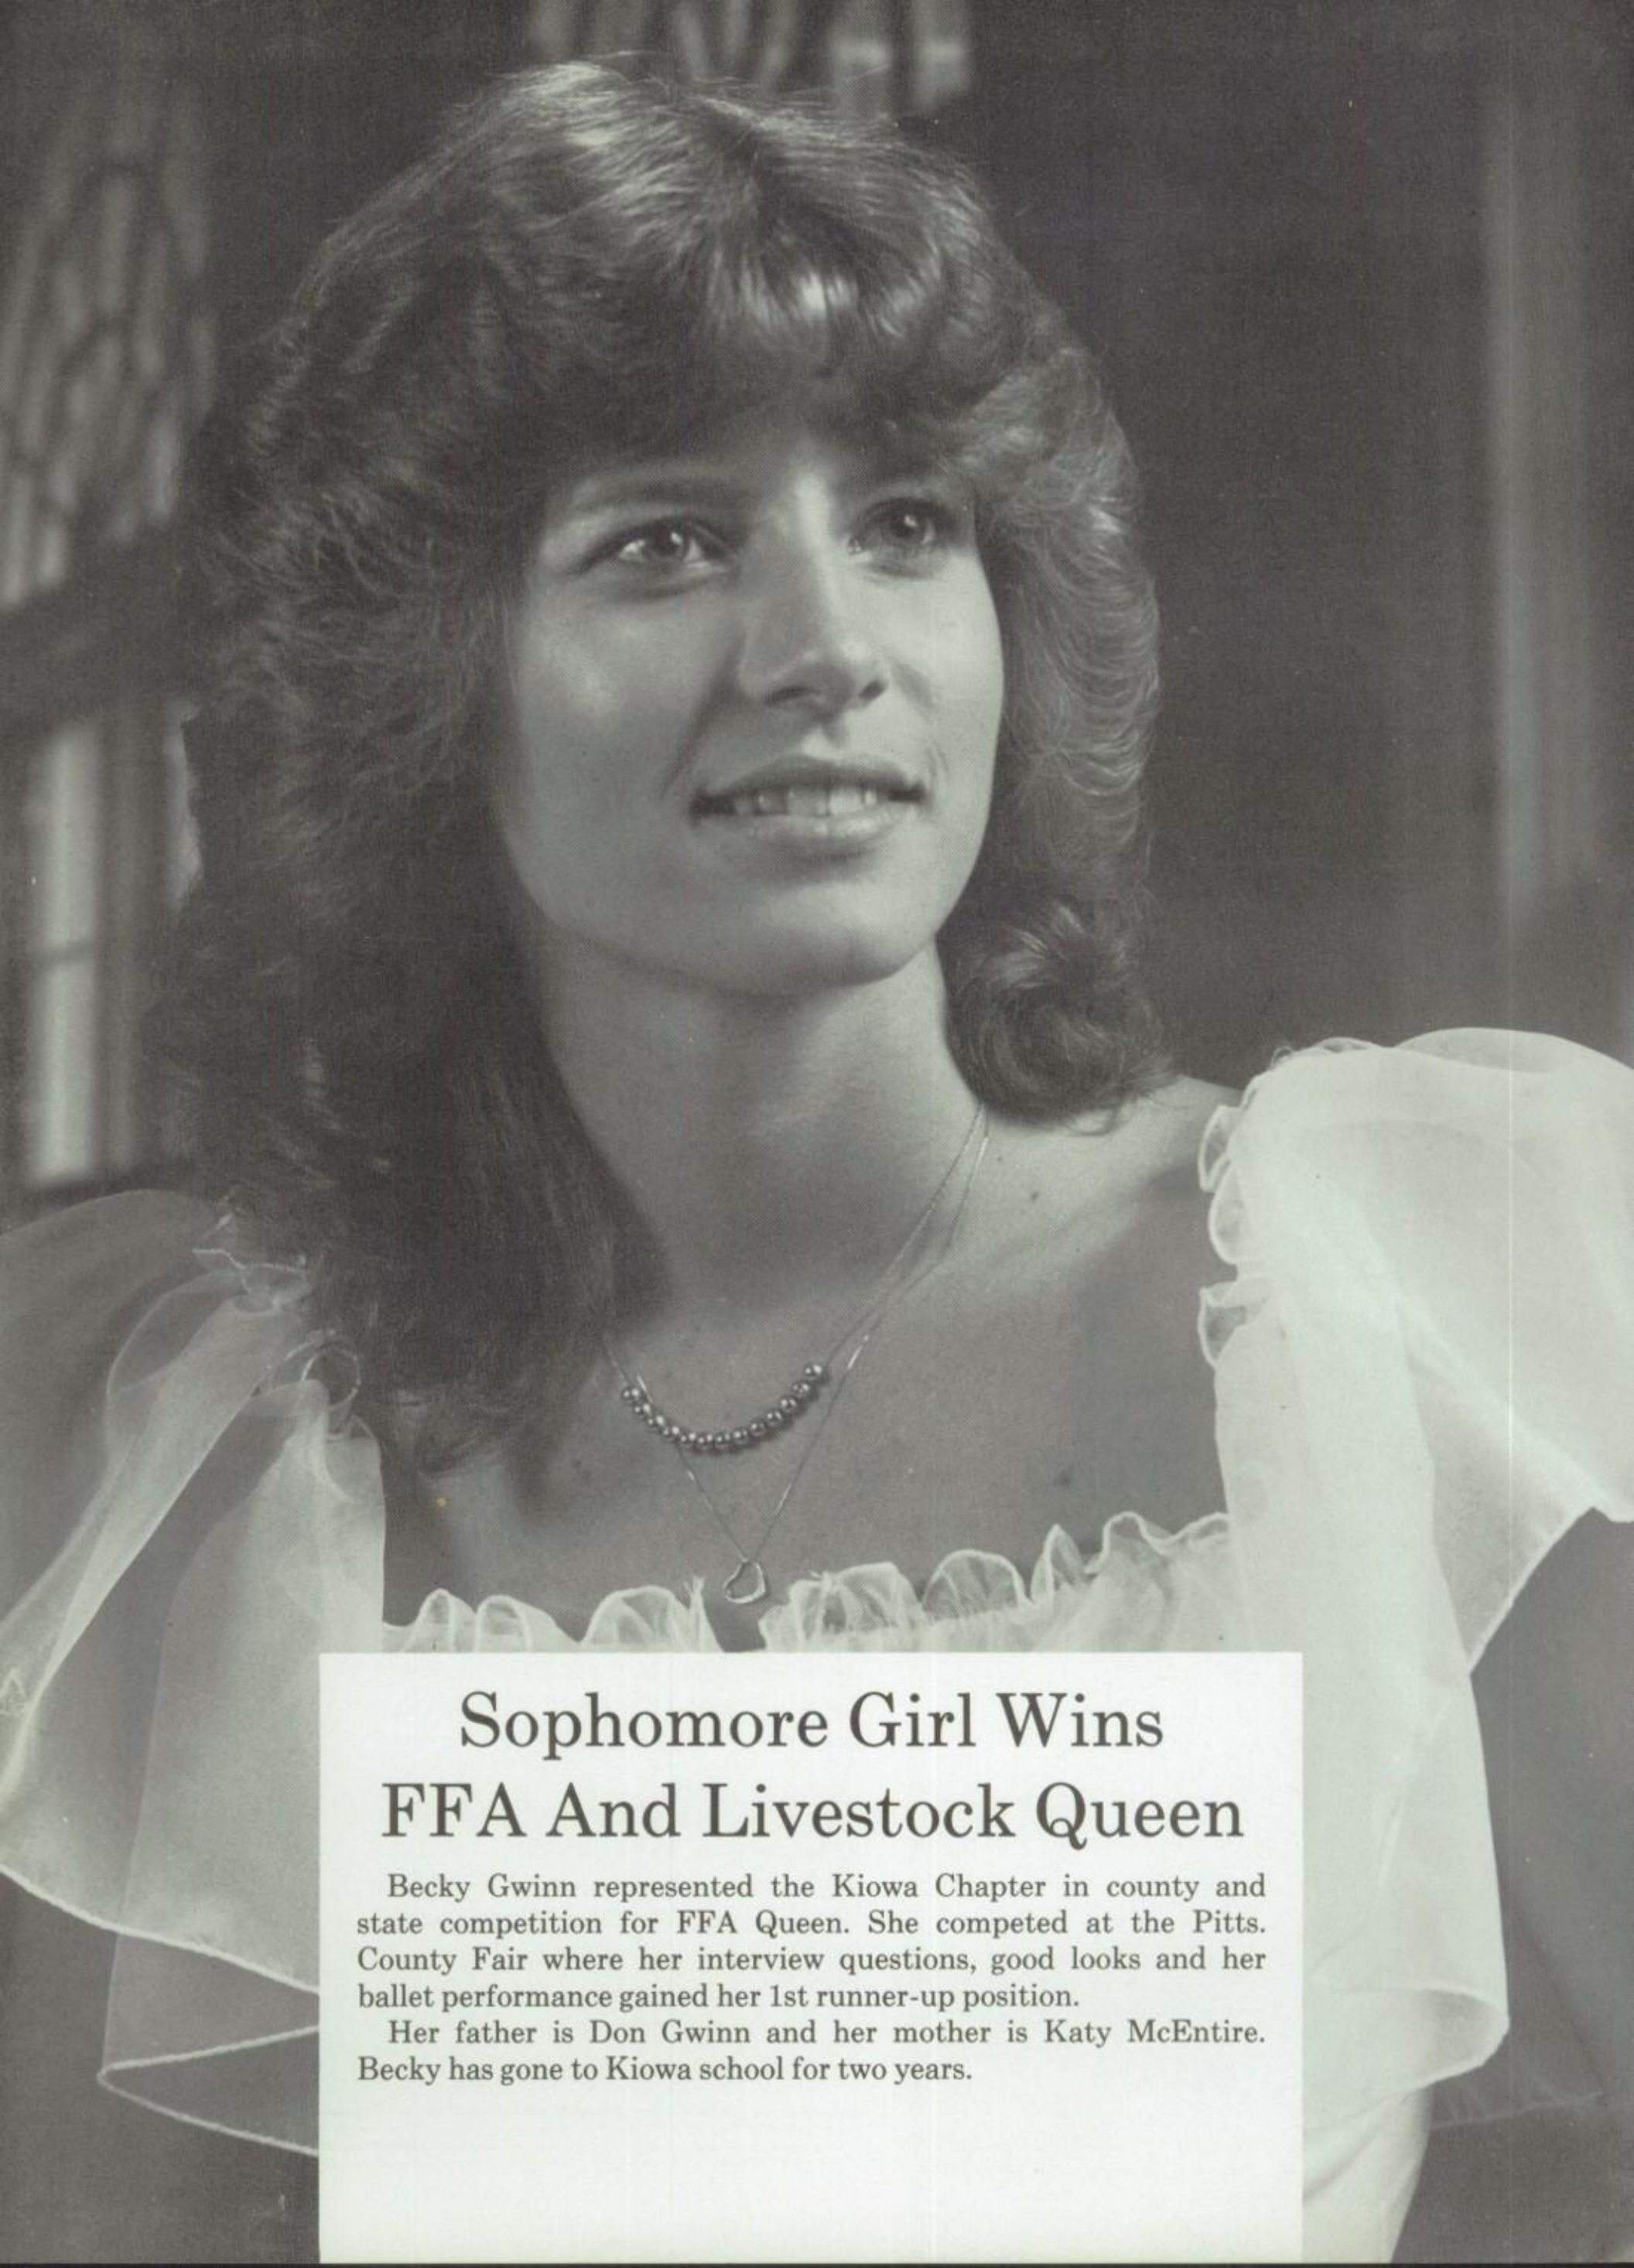

Cousins Elected Most Popular

Jeff and Kristie Newberry, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Newberry, share the title, Most Popular. Jeff's other grandparent is Elva Powell. Kristie's is Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sartor. Both enjoy basketball and 4-H while Jeff is also interested in football and track. Kristie is active in FHA and Acteens.

Kristie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Newberry. She was voted Most Friendliest senior, FHA vice-president, Sr. class secretary, and is a member of the Kiowa Baptist Church. She plays the piano and plans to study fashion design.

Jeff, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newberry, is vice-president of the Sr. class and Student Council. He attends Wardville Baptist Church. Both have been to State in the sports area and were elected to Who's Who Among American High School Students.

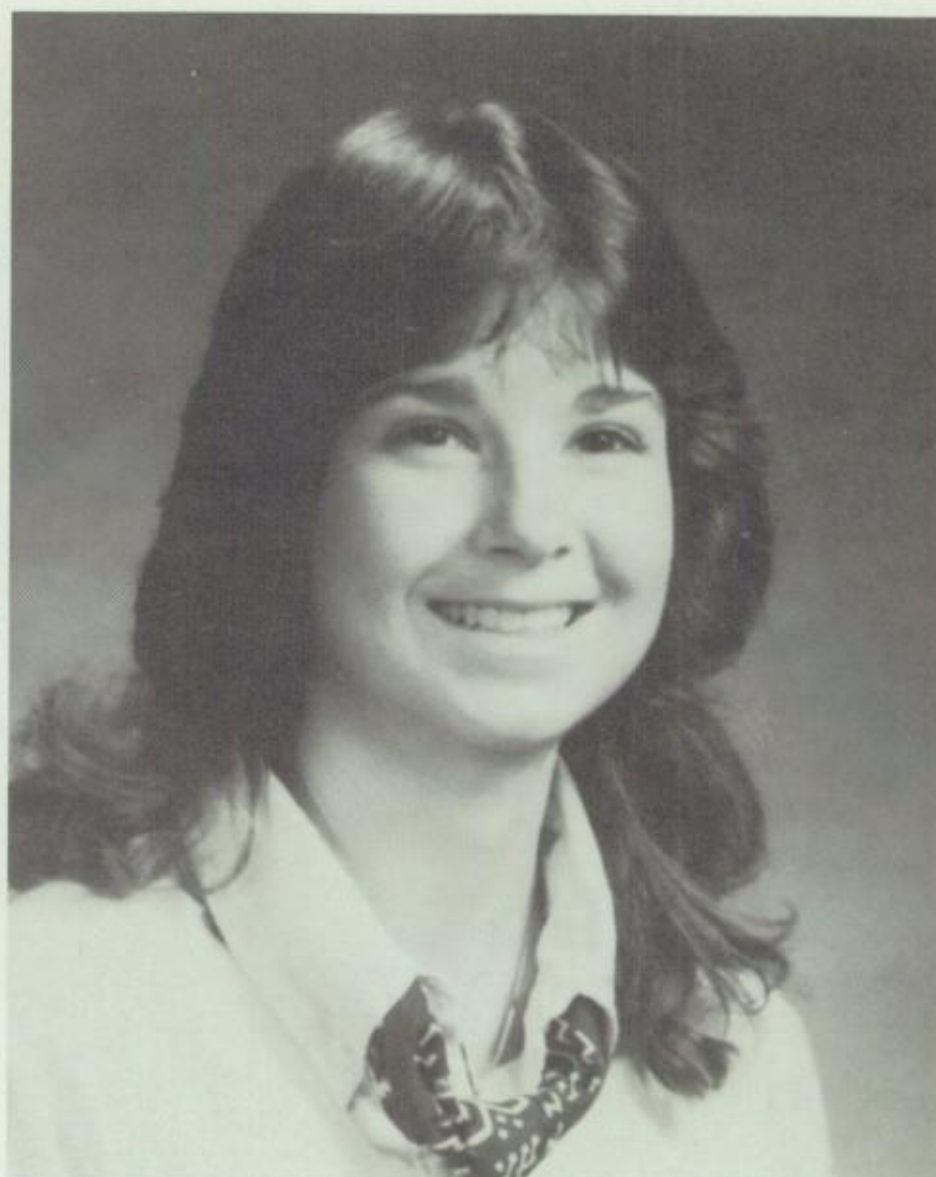

Sophomore Girl Wins FFA And Livestock Queen

Becky Gwinn represented the Kiowa Chapter in county and state competition for FFA Queen. She competed at the Pitts. County Fair where her interview questions, good looks and her ballet performance gained her 1st runner-up position.

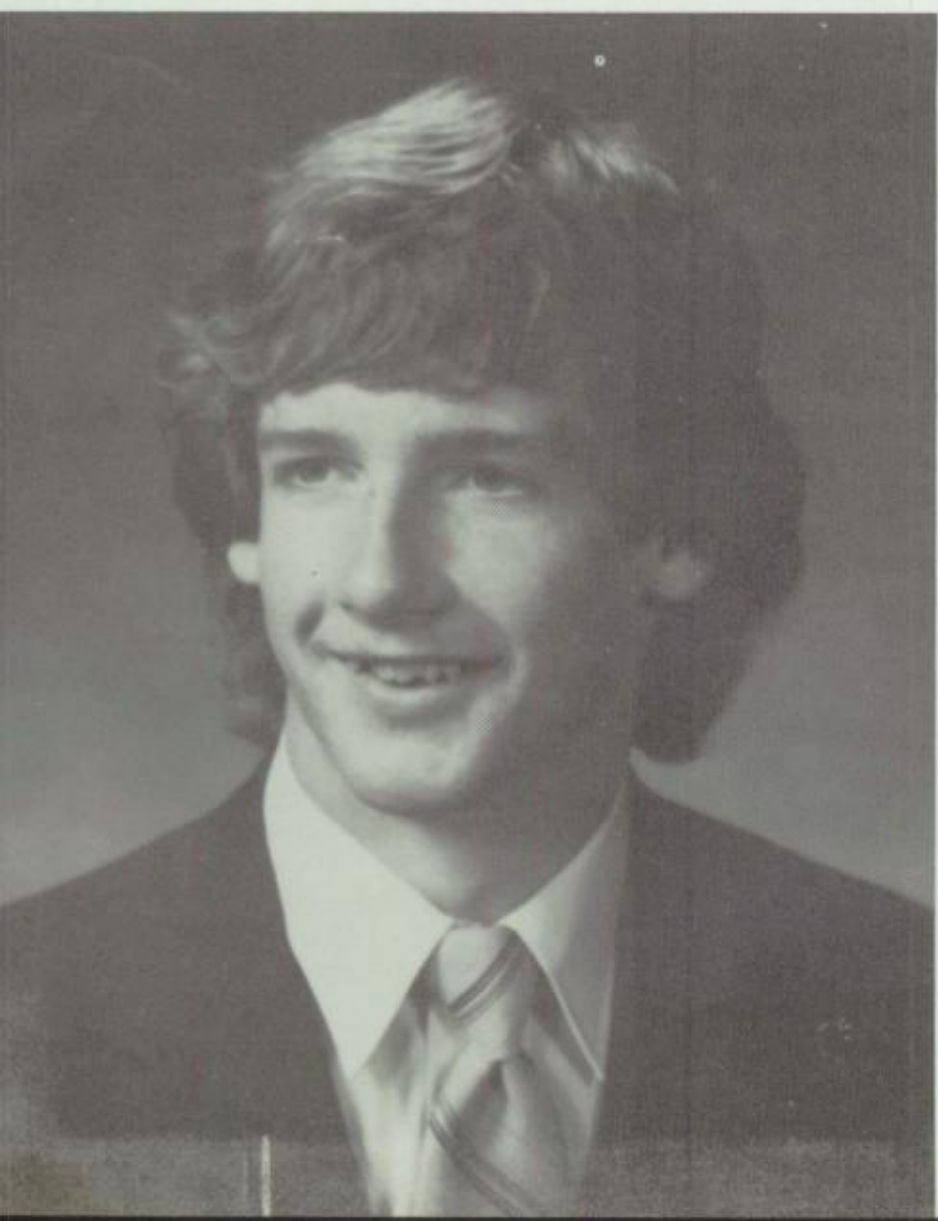

Her father is Don Gwinn and her mother is Katy McEntire. Becky has gone to Kiowa school for two years.

Seniors Win Annual King And Queen Congratulations, Tonya And Rod!

Tonya Coffee enjoys barrel racing and horse shows. She is 4-H and FHA president, class reporter, in Who's Who, and basketball. National English merit award, 11-year perfect attendance, first place typing awards, and most likely to succeed are honors she has won. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coffee are her parents. Tonya's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Coffee.

Rod Sexton is FFA and Student Council president and also in 4-H. He is class reporter. His outside activities include County FFA, Okla. High School Rodeo Assc., and Okla. Youth Rodeo Association. His grandparents are Ruby Sexton and the late Merle Sexton and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sartor.

When asked what they had learned from basketball we got the following response. "We have learned that a good team is not determined by how many games won, but by the kind of character shown on the basketball court."

Dena Capehart shows off her Michael Jackson steps. There is only one question, Dena. Why????

On your mark. Get set. GOOOOOOOOOO!

Ranee Moore tries to tell the referee that it was a touchdown. At least we know someone thinks about football. Also Mandy Newberry is doing her great imitation of a B-1 Bomber.

Dennis Trammell, Superintendent

Working with young people as they develop their mental, physical, and social aspects as well as developing good moral values that will be beneficial to them as they take their place as a productive, happy member of our community is what Dennis Trammell likes most about his job. He has been employed at Kiowa School for 8 years.

His outside of school activities include golf, traveling, and reading. Mr. Trammell finds ranching activities especially enjoyable after a day in the office.

Clark Rhyne, High School Principal

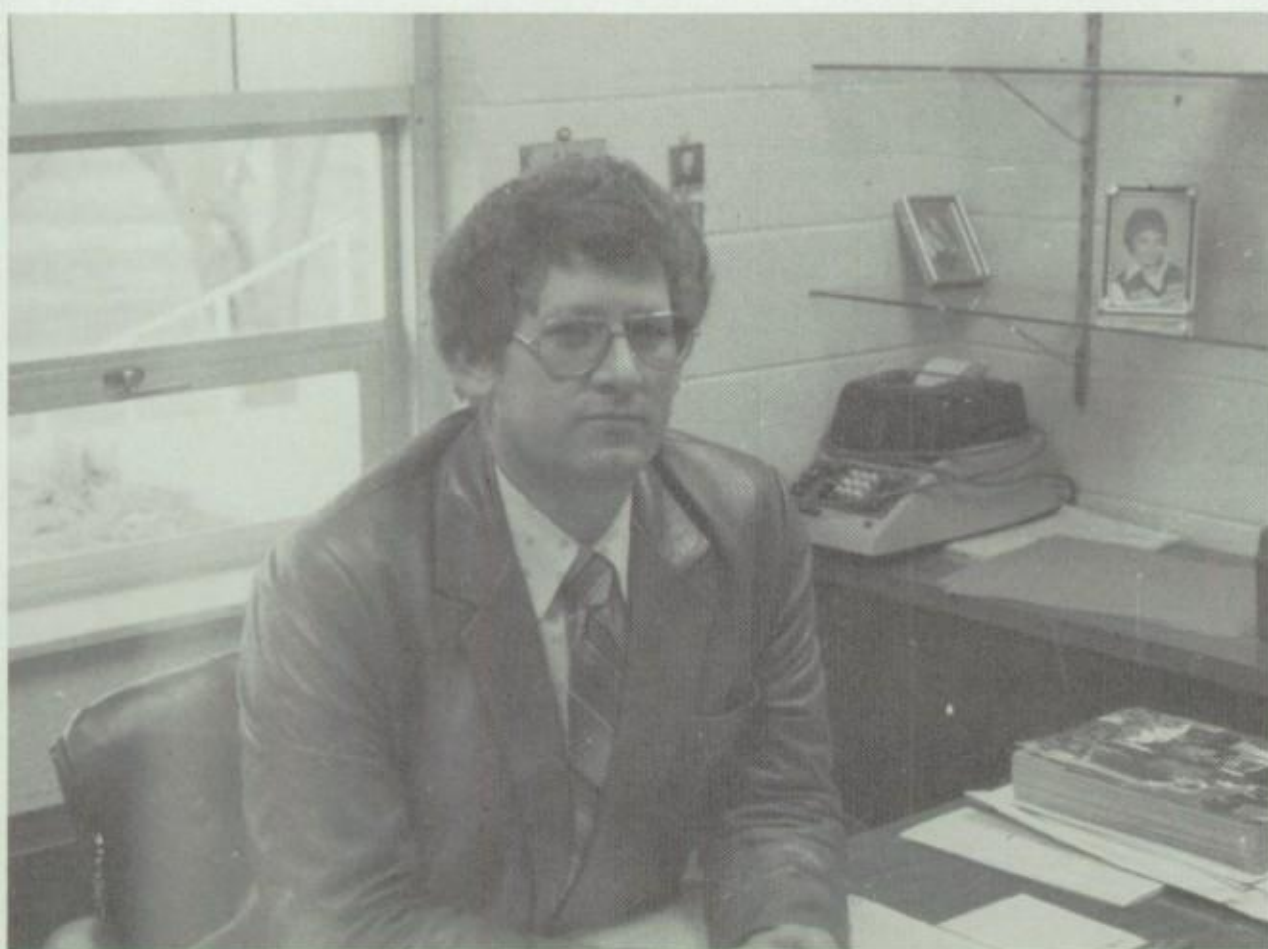

After 8 years experience as Principal Mr. Rhyne was quoted as saying "The most enjoyable part of my job is working with young people. Each day is a challenge and never boring." He also teaches history and has been in the Kiowa School System for 18 years. Playing the guitar, touring the U.S. with his family, and visiting friends are just a few of his pastimes. He enjoys baseball as a favorite sport.

Royce Casey, Elementary Principal

Mr. Casey has 13 years experience. He has been principal for 5 years. He has also taught in Savanna and enjoys working with children. He enjoys fishing, hunting, and woodworking. Mr. Casey's favorite food is steak and his favorite type of music is religious.

Classy Cooks

Ruby Maxwell heads up the classy chasis section. These culinary artists are always on the 6 best dressed list. Inez Wilkins, Betty McFarland, Ernestine Johnston, the glamorous Ann Lee, and Wilma Tucker are Ruby's top models. You really have great taste, cooks!

Designer Bus Drivers

Wow! What a line-up. Each one of these men is a designer original. Chester Johnston, Buddy Lewis, Keith Horn, Lloyd Burnett, Richard Quaid, Dean Mabray, and Buster Maxwell have all those unique qualities that makes them original.

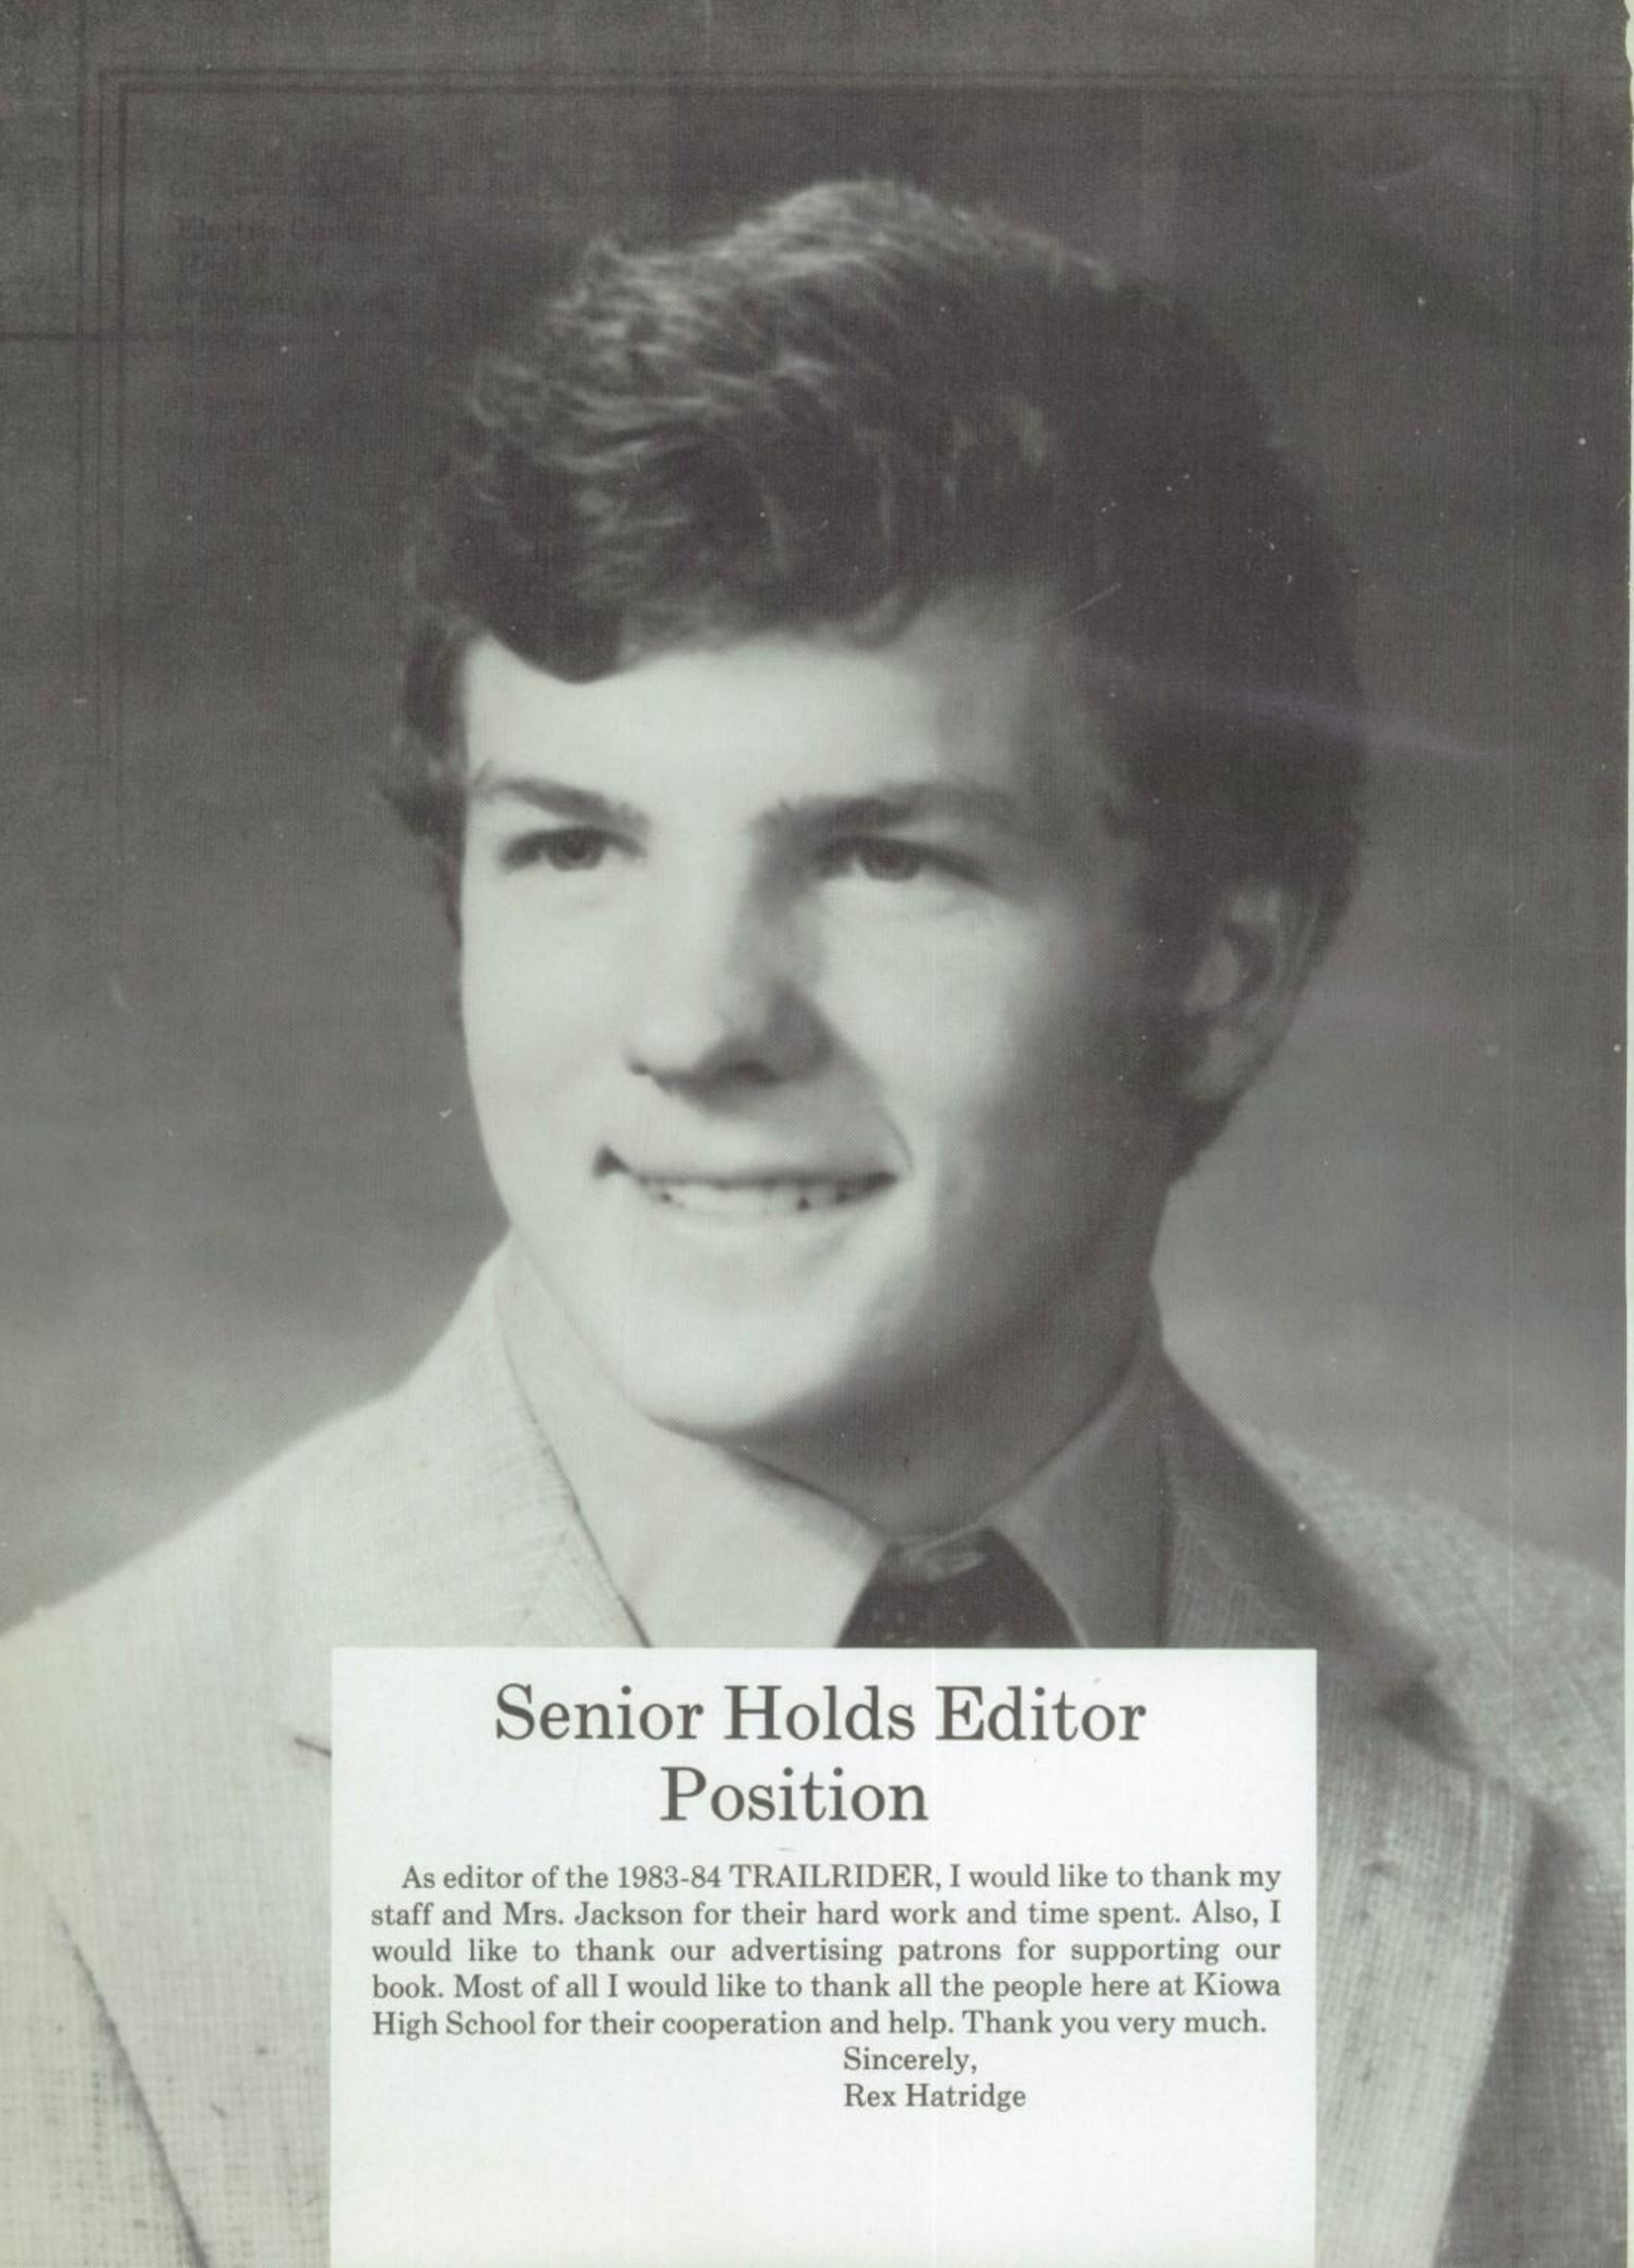

Maintenance Models

What can we say? These men are the models of maintaining a clean environment for all of us. Roy Williams, Lee Lambert, and Boyd Lambert coordinate their talents together to keep the school running smoothly.

Senior Holds Editor Position

As editor of the 1983-84 TRAILRIDER, I would like to thank my staff and Mrs. Jackson for their hard work and time spent. Also, I would like to thank our advertising patrons for supporting our book. Most of all I would like to thank all the people here at Kiowa High School for their cooperation and help. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Rex Hatridge
